

ENGLAND FACING CRITICAL PERIOD

T. P. O'Connor Fears Result of Possible Rejection of Budget by House of Lords.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—"If the House of Lords rejects the budget the situation in Great Britain will be very much strained. In fact, England is now facing one of the most critical periods in her history."

T. P. O'Connor, the famous Irish member of parliament, made this statement last night when driving from the Union station to the residence of Medill McCormick, where he was a guest of honor at a dinner.

Answering a rapid fire of questions, the strange little fellow from the station, Mr. O'Connor declared that in a measure the House of Lords is on trial and that its action in the present crisis will have very much to do with its future power.

Lords Will Be Shorn.

"Reject the budget and the House of Lords will find itself shorn of much of its present power. There will almost immediately follow a

Expressing the greatest satisfaction and pleasure with the reception thus far accorded him in this country, Mr. O'Connor said that $15,000 has already been subscribed for Ireland and his intended stay of two weeks will probably have to be extended to even four weeks in order to visit a few other cities to which he has been invited.

Ireland's Chance Now.

sands of acres of soil, and within ten or fifteen years the name of landlord in Ireland will have a strange, exotic sound.

st n. All of this has been brought about by the energy of the Irish people. They have already succeeded in almost every project save that of Home Rule, and today they have a better chance of Home Rule

"Two factions are fighting for control in England. One is fighting for free trade; the other side is just as determined to have protection, and the more they fight among themselves, the better chance will the Irish have.

"The present budget constitutes absolutely revolutionary tactics in taxation. Enormous concessions have already been gained by the Irish and the great question has arisen: 'Shall England be ruled by the peers or by the people?' The general feeling is that the people should rule; that the time has come amount rule; that the rule was made for the people to have the voice in government which they deserve. If that shall come to pass, then Home Rule for Ireland will only be three or four years away."

EVERYBODY TALKED CANADA

---

Wm. Hutchinson, Exhibitioner Com-

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—"Canada's farm and wheat lands and western townships were the chief topic of conversation among the people of the States of Washington, Oregon, and California who visited our exhibit at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition," said Wm. Hutchinson, ex-M.P. Dominion Exhibition Commissioner, who returns.

"There are a great many people there living on fruit farms," he continued," who with families of boys and only ten or twenty acres of fruit land, were turning their attention to our western wheat fields. We and people come to us in large numbers inquires from many whom returned again in September to tell us that they had been to Canada and invested in either townsites or farm lands.

"They are all talking Canada," said Mr. Hutchinson," and the immigration agent at Spokane tells me that he has had more inquiries this year than ever before."

Mr. Hutchinson leaves at the end of the week for Brussels, where Canada is planning an exhibit at the exposition which opens there next

Peace Reigns in Jackson.
Jackson, Kentucky, Nov. 1.—Comparative peace reigns here tonight, following the arrival of a detachment of Kentucky state guards to protect the polling place tomorrow and suppress any rioting that may grow out of the intense political feeling existing between the bitter contestants.

Dr. Alexander MacRae Dead.
St. John, N.B., Nov. 2.—Dr. Alexander W. MacRae, K.C., died in the hospital at two o'clock this morning after an illness of only a few days. He was Conservative candidate against Hon. Dr. Pugsley in St. John City and County for the Federal house last year and one of the ablest lawyers in the province. He was 42 years of age.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1909.

A Vancouver man says there are only two other Canadian cities he would want to live in. Edmonton is one and the other is not Calgary. The Calgary Alberta has its own opinion of that man.

This year's oat crop in Peace River is put at twenty or twenty-five per cent bushels. Those who have claim it will not be long before that many millions are given there. One hundred bushels to the acre could pay. This is the yield of the Mr. William McCue, of Prairie River.

A Methodist theological school has been established in connection with Alberta college. The Presbyterian is also making steps to found a theological college in affiliation with the Provincial university. The Methodist intend to recruit their ministry from the young men of the province.
No better material can be found.

Our aldermen may rest easy. The Albertan acquiesces in the street acquisition of dead-bowling on the alley cars. "We believe that Al. Brocklebank is wrong. Much as we would like to humiliate those proud Edmonton aldermen, we cannot believe that they or any representatives of "any city outside of Calgary, either "openly or sub rosa, covertly or oth"erwise, by printed paper or wink of "the eye, would go so far with the "property of the city as to claim "out and help themselves to it, with "out paying anything for it."

The people along the G. T. P. railway will be glad to know that a "mixed" service may be put on the road this winter. The railway commission, it seems, declines to allow regular operation until the freezing of the right-of-way is complete, and the company claim they cannot afford the line from Edmonton to Wainwright this fall. The "mixed" service will be received by the people along the line, and by the towns in the city, as a substantial improvement and an earnest of better things.
It is possible indeed that the firmness along the railway will be believed in for the time the company are only allowed to operate local or semi-local trains. Desirable as it may be that Edmonton tourists should be whipped into Winnipeg in the shortest possible space of time, and vice versa, it is by no means desirable that through trains be operated through a thickly-settled district over an unimproved track.

Man is a tax-paying animal, and has been for untold ages. Where-ever on this earth there has been tax paying, there has been a tax collector.
Small, tyrannical or free, good, bad, or indifferent, there has been found necessity or desirable to pass the tax by day grace or wheelbarrow.
There is no subject has been the theme of more wild and serious consideration and on none perhaps have the conclusions reached been so widely various. From the wild-eyed orator who denounces all taxes as robbery, to the philosopher who argues that it is the only way to civilization, there is over this, mankind is engaged into innumerable schools, each advancing a doctrine of its own as to how much taxes should be collected, and how the collecting should be done.
On one point, however, there is all but unanimous—that the taxes, whatever they are, are too high. From Edmonton to Allsbrook, and from London to Hankow, the overwhelming weight of public opinion is for the reduction of the tax bill. That there is one exception to the rule will excite some curiosity, yet such is the case. The Medicine Hat News is the only exception. This city has a tax rate of only ten mills. To most of us this would seem a good and desirable condition of things to be established in more cities than Medicine Hat. But the News finds it a mischievous cause of strife and sets forth its case thus:

"Our opinion is that the low tax rate is detrimental to the city—when compared along with unimproved property. A ten-mill tax rate makes it so easy to hold a few city lots for speculation that the holder pays the taxes and does not care much whether he improves or not, as it does not cost him much to hold on and wait for something to turn up.
It is this waiting and inactivity which is the worst enemy of Medicine Hat's interests. If it was collecting a much a little more to hold his unimproved real estate, we would find him awakening from his indifference and taking a wider interest in the general improvement of the city. Though a man a little "stronger on his pocket book and he "will sit up and take notice."

WHAT ABOUT THE UNION

It is to be regretted that no reference to the union station is made in the agreement with the C. P. R.
The railroaders are asked to satisfy on the left this station. The union is undertaken. Edmonton has a union station, though the fact is never to have been overlooked in the preparation of the present agreement. The two roads now in the city have made an arrangement for the use of joint terminal and in doing so show the principle and the fact of a union station. The city should permit no departure from this. The advantages of such a union station business connections are many and diverse. The disadvantages of having terminals scattered throughout the city wherever the company may see fit to locate them are equally apparent. The benefits of concentration are so generally recognized that it is not necessary to state the objectives to have the union station made a feature in the development of the city and transportation facilities. Older cities are making such a union station separate terminals abolished and an union terminal established. Edmonton has the advantage of having a plentiful start on the good way already made. All roads now in the city use the same station. That fact should be a guide to the city fathers in the policy of the city. The city should be free to throw away needlessly an advantage which Edmonton possesses, an advantage the lack of which is causing older and larger cities no end of trouble and annoyance, and to get which older and larger cities are willing to spend money and to grant concessions. We could not of course bargain with the C. P. R. to make a future bargain with people who might not be willing to make such bargain. But it could have been required that the C. P. R. not make the bargain before the council passed the agreement. In the past it could be stipulated in the agreement that the C. P. R. should use their best endeavors to get permission to use the union station before proceeding to the establishment of separate terminals. This clause could give the city something to stand on before the railway commission, and on which to make a fight for the preservation of the union station.
Should the agreement pass without this clause, and should we go before the commission to secure their consistency in maintaining the union station, we would be in a position to make them any valid evidence we had done what we could to prevent it, or even, or had even expressed our preference for it. Under such circumstances the commission must naturally come to the conclusion that we did not care very much about the matter and would listen all the more favorably to the plausible arguments of the C. P. R. for the establishment of separate terminals.
We may rely absolutely on the C. P. will of the railway commission on this matter, but we certainly cannot expect them to protect us if we take no steps to protect ourselves, or even to give them notice that we want to be protected. If we are to preserve the union station we should insist on this in every future agreement we make with railways desiring to enter the city.

A Man in the Case.

Chatham, Ont., Nov. 1.—The report that Mrs. Mary Hamble, accused of drowning her husband's horse, had confessed, is false. She has retained counsel to defend her and will fight to the limit. It is believed that there is a man in the case and that she is showing him. The night of the exploiting the Rumble horse. He had a companion, but whether it was a man or a woman could not be ascertained. The horse had a white face, and the name was not ascertained.
Hamble was burned out of house and home a number of years ago.

Sad Case in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 1.—James Sam Campbell, aged 86, late of Montreal, a machanic's helper, was picked up unconscious on the C.P.R. yards and after being assisted a few yards, suddenly collapsed and died.
The cause is supposed to be a heart disease. The case is a particularly sad one as his wife is shortly to become a mother.

CORRESPONDENCE

OTHER SIDE OF THE QUESTION.

Editor Bulletin: In connection with the recent fight against the proposed charge of alleged members of the New York branch of the Christian Science church, the following communication from Alfred Farlow, of the Boston press, and from Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy are sent to the Editor of the Post:

But if the public has not weaned reading a periodical refutation of the past little battle about Christian Science perhaps it has not weaned with our correspondents.

Mrs. Gilbert may be a "reader and practitioner" of something, but certainly not "in the Christian Science Church." As to her charge of "graft," all of the financial affairs of the church have been known to its 40,000 or 50,000 members, and such a thing would be impossible if it were desirable. Clearly all of the men who are connected with the movement at headquarters are serving the church at a monetary sacrifice.

Mrs. Gilbert asserts that the principal basis of the movement lies in the sale of Mrs. Eddy's books. This is evidently a new version of what constitutes graft.
No one is obliged to purchase the books, and if he does he gets the worth of his money. Christian Science is not expected to purchase a revival book from any movement expected to purchase newly improved machinery. The Christian Scientist, as well as the mechanic may deserve his advantage if he places money by a new, revised hat at least without much trouble. Without any reflections upon the new hat, I may say that a revised "Science and Health" book is now in and is worth much more to the spiritual understanding of a student of Christian Science than the last edition has to one who owns a hat out of the fashion.

As a church, the Christian Science demonstration is not anti-scientific. As a church, the demonstration is not anti-left to the individual discretion of its members.

Since Mrs. Gilbert repudiates Christian Science, she is, of course, not a member. Her allegation that Mrs. Eddy is no first-class scholar, by some other person, has been refuted by the Christian Science church, and the evidence is now which could not be mistaken by any one who is not a member of the Christian Science church.

Mrs. Gilbert has evidently become bitterly excited in her Christian Science.
She never has ever understood it. This Science does not teach that "one power," but the contrary teaches that "God is the only real power." Mrs. Eddy is not a deity, but a person who could be produced by mental process, who has had the same kind of deception by knowing the simple truth.

ALFRED FARLOW.

PAID GUIDE T. DEPOSE COOK General Action Express, Belief in Barrell's Honesty.

Washington, D.C., Nov. 1.—General James M. Ashton, of Tacoma, who is now here, says that Barrill did not get within fourteen miles of the summit of Mount McKinley. The affidavit from Barrill was obtained by Barrill, at the request of General Thomas H. Halbard, a supporter of Committee Pease.
"I wanted the exact truth," said General Ashton. "I put Barrill through the third degree, all right.
As for Barrill, who swears that Cook did not get within fourteen miles of the summit of Mount McKinley, he is nothing but a mountaineer's guide, but he is a type of our hard-working western men who will fight their way to the top of the world." But "N. Y. has raised a family of liars, and all the rest of us are liars."
He is a type of our hard-
their way to the top of the world."
He is a type of our hard-
their way to the top of the world."

He says that anyone can go up on the mountain with him, take photos of him, as Cook did, in the presence of Barrill, who will indicate and get the selfsame results that Cook got, claiming different localities, and then, however.

He says that fear Cook, but does not care to have any legal form with him. For that reason he has retained me as counsel in case Cook files suit against him."

SUNDAY LAW IN QUEBEC.

Magistrate Cannot Find Anything in Statutes to Prohibit Photo Shows.

Ottawa, Nov. 1.—The Lord's Day Alliance has had a very close case brought against A. B. Charon of Aylmer, Que., for keeping a moving picture show open on Sunday. Mes-sieurs Rivest, of Hull, dismissed the case with costs, declaring that he could not find anything in the statutes which would justify conviction, as a moving picture exhibition could not be classified as a labor, a business or a theatrical performance. An appeal will be taken by the Lord's Day Alliance.

FIRE IN AN ORPHANAGE.

Five Little Girls Burned to Death in Virginia.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 1.—Five children, all inmates of the nursery, were burned to death in a fire which today totally destroyed the orphanage, the girls' home at the Virginia orphan-asylum, Lynchburg.

The dead are: Ruby Moorfield, Lucile Moorfield, Lynchburg. Maud Reynolds, Bath county, Va.; Marie Canning, Campbell county, Va.; Mary Paul, McDowell county, W. Va.

The children were cut off from an escape in the second floor of the wing of the building. Ruby Moorfield alone was taken out, but when she accidentally that her younger sister was still inside, she ran back and lost her life.

The fire was discovered by Mrs.
Priest, the cook, who was aroused by the roar of the flames. She rushed to the third story and brought forth children down to the second floor, leading them to the veranda roof, where they were taken down a ladder, several of them dropping into the unstrengthened arms of the older boys in the institution.

When those children were all safe, Mrs. Priest had to jump for her life.
She was badly burned.

New Sultan of Morocco.

London, Oct. 31.—A despatch from Paris says Mulai Kadir, the sultan's brother, has proclaimed Abdul Aziz, the deposed sultan, to be the lawful sovereign of Morocco. The proclamation, which was made as Teza, has caused considerable excitement here.
The sultan is reported to have succeeded in all his available troops. Abdul Aziz is said to be in Tangier.

How Many Men will be Employed by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company in Edmonton?

A great many different estimates as regards the number of men who will be employed by the Grand Trunk Pacific Co. have been given. Some say as many as 3,000, others say at least as many as the C. P. R. employ in Calgary, or about 1,200, other estimates are 600, etc., but to figure on a sure conservative basis it is not reasonable to suppose that at least 250 men will be employed? Supposing that only 250 is the number, statistics will bear us out in stating that every two working men give employment indirectly to a third, in which case, this very conservative estimate is increased by 125 making a total of 375 men who must live near the G. T. P. shops. 375 men should represent at least four times that many people on a total of 1,400 of a population. How many towns in Alberta have 1,400 or more of a population? A very small percentage of the whole.

Realize Calder's possibilities as an investment if this argument is reasonable. Remember the Calder subdivision is only half a mile from any part of it to the roundhouse and shops. From the nearest corner of Calder, it is only a stone throw to the roundhouse which is more than half completed. Consider that you can still purchase large lots, 50 x 125 feet, in this sub-division at the price of $150 and that only $50 is all that is to be paid for one year, the balance is payable in 1 and 2 years at 7%.

Remember

that G.T.P. men are buying in Calder, that contractors are buying in Calder, that already a dozen buildings are in course of construction in Calder, that Calder was offered for sale for first time on Sept. 20, '09. Can you lose by buying at first prices.

Calder

Offers an opportunity for safe investment in Edmonton that has had no equal for the last three years.

SPORTING NEWS

BASEBALL A POPULAR PRESIDENT.

Lethbridge, Nov. 3.—The election of Christian J. Ekstrom of Lethbridge as president of the All-Canadian Baseball league insured for that sport one of the ablest and best men in the west.

It further means a "sure go" and a great impetus to baseball in the west, because "Chris" is a hard worker. He has been a baseball enthusiast for the last thirty-three years. Mr. Ekstrom was born in the city of Mankato, Minn., some forty-seven years ago.

His life has been spent in the west where he has known as a strong personality in the development of two of the western provinces—Alberta and British Columbia—and five of the western states of the United States.

Mr. Ekstrom is a "heavyweight" in baseball circles, both from the number of ponds awarded him for his services and his general knowledge, and from the fact that he is one of the prime movers and "backers" in the formation and operation of the league and will undoubtedly not add rest and increased enthusiasm into the work during the coming year.

GOOD PROSPECTS IN CALGARY.
It is the firm belief of Fred Gravely, secretary of the Calgary Hockey league, that there will be no professional hockey in Calgary this winter. He thinks that the season is so short for this sport in Calgary and Nelson that a league including these two places could not be run on a paying basis.

TAKE UP CHALLENGE AT ONCE.
Ottawa, Nov. 3.—Wain Parnell, one of the Stanley Cup finalists, said tonight that he would have a challenge tomorrow with H. D. Hill regarding the challenge of the Edmonton Hockey Club and that a decision will probably be reached.

SASKATON PLAYERS RETURN.
Saskatoon, Nov. 3.—Leo Carter, who is well known in Saskatoon hockey circles, has returned to the city after a tour of 18 months in the States. He is perhaps best known as one of the great hockey players who has ever belonged to the city team. It is hoped he will bring in his lot with one of the hockey teams of the city for this season. Carter is a really player in the ranks of the Rough Riders.

BRUCE STUART FOR MONTREAL.
After returning to his native town and resigning the team he brought to Stanley cup at Ottawa Bruce Stuart, one of the best known and most sought after hockeyists in the country, has decided to migrate again, and announced he had signed a contract to play with the Montreal Millionaires team that will be the chief drawing card in the Jubilee winter-Ottawa Free Press.

WALTON HEATH TURNAMENT.
London, Nov. 3.—The big news of the World golf tournament at Walton Heath, under the auspices of the Professional Golfers' union, marks the close of another golfing year in Great Britain as far as the great tournaments are concerned, and it has provided a new name for the trophy, in "Tom" Ball of West Lancashire. For years past golfers have been talking about the coming of the younger school of professionals, and of the way they were going to overthrow the great men of experience, but for all their chattering they never seemed to get any further. Three years ago in this tournament young Mayo got into the final, but Head defeated him then. Last year at Richmond Lord reached the final stage, but he, too, was put out by an older man in Taylor. Last year also in the open championship "Tom" Ball was second to Brand. This year at Deal he was second again, and a very few hard ships by Taylor would have let him in. Several big fourmen have been played in which several big names have opposed the older ones, but the latter have always won. Some of the last, however, it was certain that the young ones would win, and during the last twelve months the golf world, after turning its face first to one, then to another, settled at last that the best of the young hands was this "Tom" Ball. Now he has won one of the two greatest professional tournaments in the world, and he is the first young player to do so since the reign of the master who which has been sustained for many years.

WRESTLING.
TREMBLAY RETAINS TITLE.
Montreal, Nov. 3.—Jogues Tremblay successfully defended the lightweight championship of the world tonight at sunset park by defeating John Biller of Toledo, Ohio, in straight falls. The win was 1st, 1st, 1st, for the first fall, and for the second 1st, 1st, 1st. It was probably the cleanest fight seen in Montreal for many years and from present appearances the Pulse Gazette believes enthusiastic of the lightweight championship, is likely to stay in Montreal for some time.

THE RING.
JEFFRIES TRAINING SCHEME.
New York, Nov. 3.—Just as soon as the water of the lake is settled, Jeffries will teach the country with a companion of his own, and two men on each performance," said Sam Berger tonight. "We are simply waiting with others for short bursts and several startling propositions have come from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh."

"Jeff is not against trying his hand at six round bouts with any of the new, but he favors the idea of going on the road with an athletic theatrical show, with an offer to stop two men at each performance. In that way he hopes to retain his confidence."

"John L. Sullivan, Bob Fitzsimmons and other great fighters hope to meet him by going about the country, but over all centers, we hope that measures will go through with it. No matter what the audience and signifies a willingness to try for the substantial reward that will be given to the man who is able to walk off the stage after Jeff gets through with him. Fanny if Al Kaufman, Jack O'Brien, Jim Flynn or any of that sort should help him to do it, we will send and demand a crack at little Jim. Well, they will be accommodated."

BOWLING.
PAINTERS PARK TWO IN THREE.
A closely contested game was played tonight in the T.M.C.C. bowling alley. The Painters defeated the Priests 2-1 in three. The high knock was captured by Eddie Bolander of the Priests. The Painters won 2-1. Dan Knott's three strings netted 220.

AMUSEMENTS

A GOOD OPENING BILL.
The Francis Opera Company commenced a week's performance at the Edmonton Opera House last evening with every indication that the new season's achievements of the company in previous years will be equaled or surpassed. "A Gay Parisienne" was the theme of the opening night. The company gave scope for such well-known artists as "Tuddy" Webb and Miss Mabel Day, the former as Mr. Ebenezer Hazard, a "shining light," and the leading lady as the part of Mlle. de la Roche. The play is a comedy, and the company gave a great reception wherever they appeared. In the disguise of a Scotchman Tuddy Webb was given a great ovation. In the discovery of the pole in the song "Dr. Cook's Fodder Questions" was something new and created a great deal of excitement. Jack Stevens' brilliant voice was loudly heard, especially in his rendering of "The Two Broadheads" and "I Wish What I Wish When I Want It" which was given by special request.

The quartet including Bon Bon, Pumper, Mrs. Honeycomb and Honeycomb called the audience at the end of the first act with "Cock-a-doodle-Do." This was the best feature of the act.

Georgia Campbell as Nook, Charles Centre as Tom Keville, the baritone, appeared at their best in the song "Smile, Smiles." "Tom's" tenor voice also has an appreciative audience in the number "Take Me With You in Your Dreams." Francis K. Link, as the German hotel proprietor in a first-class comedienne.

The house was comfortably filled and all rejoiced at a whole week of opera in the city. Tonight the play of last evening will be repeated, with the "Runaway Girl" on Wednesday and Thursday night. The "Tommy" on Friday night and "The Geisha" on Saturday and Sunday.

artists, were next, and presented one of the best acrobatic turns seen here. The dancing of Miss Emrie, while called on the trapeze, was, very clever, and she received liberal applause.

Alvin Pinckson, rendering "Harvest Moon," made a big hit and was cheered. The pretty sister, and safely refrain caught the crowd's fancy, as was evidenced by the way they joined in the chorus.

Comedian made of the humorist, a ventriloquist artist, followed with a very meritorious offering. His work is clean and new, and he has the initiative of a person singing inside a grandfather's clock, opening and shutting the door of the clock. How he manages to change the volume of his voice so rapidly is certainly wonderful.

Fisher and Burkhardt, singers and dancers, were great favorites. Mr. Fisher has composed countless songs, among them "My Cruel Captain," "My Brander Sympat," "If the Man in the Moon were a Coon," "Every Little Bit Helps," etc., and his melody of his own compositions was immensely popular. His latest hit, "Schlitz," brought the house down, and all through the act they received well-merited applause.

The Three Lancers, dancers and comedians, were highly cheered. Their dancing is marvellous, and their finish, which is a high kick, is something to be seen. The lady's hands, while they are about ten feet apart, is something to be seen. Mr. Lancelotti's high kick, which is a high kick, is something to be seen.

EMPIRE'S BILL IS EXCELLENT.
Without doubt one of the most entertaining bills the Empire has ever had was presented last night. To a big house, despite cooler attractions, there was not a weak act in the whole programme and that every one "made good" was clearly demonstrated by the applause received.

The Empire orchestra, rendering "Best and Peasant," opened the programme and were applauded for their excellent rendition of this ever-popular classic.

Miss Emrie, assisted by Mons. Silver, Trappes and Roman Ring,
